DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election with traverse of Species 3, Claims 1-7, 12 in the reply filed on 4/18/05 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that all of the species are drawn to subject matter which is so related to each other that an undue burden would not be placed upon the examiner by maintaining all species in a single application. This is not found persuasive because the non-obvious variants between each of the species present a burden in both search and examination. Claims 8-11, 13-15 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a nonelected species, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Applicant timely traversed the restriction (election) requirement in the reply filed on 4/18/05.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Drawings

Figures 10-12 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). Corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Ash, US Patent Pub.No 20020125964 A1.

Regarding Claim 1, Ash discloses a clock converter for synchronizing the phase of a phase locked loop (Para. [0026]) feedback signal output (102a, 102b) from voltage controlled oscillating means (Figure 1) with the phase of an input signal using phase detector means (PLL inherency), to output a clock signal of a predetermined frequency, comprising: voltage controlled oscillating means (Fig. 1) outputting a positive feedback signal (113 output signals) for a positive feedback loop from one output terminal of buffer means (110) forming a portion of the positive feedback loop, which uses voltage controlled phase shifting means (L1, D1, D2, C1, C2, R1-R3), and outputs the PLL feedback signal (102a, 103b) from another output terminal of the buffer means (110).

Regarding Claim 2, Ash discloses the buffer means (110) of the voltage controlled oscillating means (Fig. 1) further comprises an ECL differential amplifying circuit (Para. [0023]).

Regarding Claim 3, Figure 1 shows signal transmitting means for adjusting impedance (C6, C7) and phase detectors means and dividing means are inherent to the PLL. (Para. [0026]).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 4-7 and 12 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: the best prior art of record, Ash, taken alone or in combination of other references, does not teach or fairly suggest the specific arrangement of transmitting means for adjusting impedance, as set forth in the claims.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Kato et al. discloses a PLL with a waveform shaping circuit.

Washburn discloses a crystal oscillator with minimized Q reduction.
